

STEVEN & ELIZABETH WISTRICH, DIRECTORS

cityballet
OF SAN DIEGO

SEASON 31
2023-2024

Special Performances for School Children

PETER and the WOLF

In 1936 Sergei Prokofiev was commissioned to create a musical symphony for children. He used different instruments to play a 'theme' that represents each character in the story. Follow the adventures of young Peter who lives with his grandfather in the forest and his encounters with a duck, a bird, a cat and a Wolf!

Fri, November 3, 2023

Check-in: 10:00am – Performance at 10:30am

Length: 1 hour – Appropriate for Grades K-6

Location: Balboa Theatre, 868 Fourth Ave, Downtown San Diego

The Nutcracker

Follow Clara on her magical journey from a Christmas party to the enchanted Snow Forest and on to the Land of Sweets where the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier welcome magical performances from dancers throughout the world to Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's score.

Thursday, December 21, 2023

Check-in: 10:00am – Performance at 10:30am

Length: 1 hour 45 minutes – Appropriate for Grades K-12

Location: California Center for the Arts, Escondido

TICKETS: $3 each for Title 1 school children, $6 each for all other schools.

Tickets only available in advance through City Ballet, not through the theater's box office.

Minimum order of 10 tickets. All reservations must be paid in advance. Limited to 800 seats.

Contact: Jo Anne Emery at 619-846-8774 or joanne.emery@cityballet.org

California Standards-based study guides are provided for each teacher.

See other side for information about school assemblies.

www.cityballet.org
858.272-8663

EDUCATION PARTNERS

Financial support is provided in part by

Commission for Arts and Culture

School Assemblies

Can't come to the theater? City Ballet's "Ballet Goes to School" program offers ballet at your school with a fun and informative 50-minute assembly performed by City Ballet's professional dancers. Special programs have been created that are geared for children, while capturing and maintaining their interest. Standards-based study guides are provided for teachers to enhance the learning experience.

Peter and the Wolf

In 1936 Sergei Prokofiev was commissioned to create a musical symphony for children. He used different instruments to play a 'theme' that represents each character in the story. Follow the adventures of young Peter who lives with his grandfather in the forest and his encounters with a duck, a bird, a cat and a Wolf!

Appropriate for grades K-6

Available January – April

COST: $450 for one assembly or $750 for two back-to-back assemblies.

Need a theater or multipurpose room to accommodate 32' by 24' performance space and seating for students.

Discover A Dancer

This 30-week residency program provides young students an in-depth exposure to ballet. Program culminates with a school assembly for peers and family members.

Available during school hours or as an after-school program.

Appropriate for grades 2 – 5

Cost: $2,000 for 20 students

Booking: October – April

Classroom Demonstration

Two dancers from City Ballet can come to your classroom with a 30-minute program.

Students learn ballet steps and the French terminology, plus a close and personal look into the ballet world.

Appropriate for grades K-12

Cost: $100 for one classroom, $150 for two or $200 for three —all booked on the same day.

Booking dates: October – April

Contact: 619-846-8774 or joanne.emery@cityballet.org

OUR PROGRAMS MEET CALIFORNIA STATE ARTS STANDARDS FOR DANCE.

EDUCATION PARTNERS

Financial support is provided in part by

